Presentations at the 5th International Symposium on Spiritual Knowledge Management, Vienna 2026

- Alexander Kaiser — Future Version of the SELF: A Resonance Perspective
- Markus F. Peschl — The (Forgotten) Fourth Illiteracy: Why We Have Forgotten How to Care – Why Caring Is the Condition of Twenty-First-Century Knowing in Spiritual KM
- Nurit Zaidman — The Enactment of Spiritual Knowledge and Practices in Organizational and Event Settings
- Clemens Kerschbaum — Building Bridges: From Manifesto to Field – Identity, Practices, and a Global Agenda
- Ernst Josef Wageneder — Knowledge Management Makes No One Wiser. Spiritual KM — A Method That Changes That
- Matthias Strolz — AI Will Know More Than We Ever Can. So What Is Left for Us? The Anthropology of the Knower – from a HOMO UNIVERSUS Perspective
- Ludmila Mládková — Spiritual KM – Only Few Ideas
- Emiko Tsuyuki — Ba and Phenomenology for Knowledge Creation
- Constantin Bratianu — Time Perception and Spiritual KM
- Bryan Dik — Calling and Your Future Best Self: SpKM-Relevant Questions from the Psychology of Vocation
- Florian Kragulj — Practical Wisdom and Spirituality
- Marius Ungerer — Personal Consciousness as a Key Leverage for Management Innovation
- Georg Plank - Spiritual KM and Spirituality